Assalamualaikum,

The second quarter has been a busy period for Pustaka. We have successfully organized several significant programs. In conjunction with World Book and Copyright Day 2014, a program entitled "Let's Read Together for 10 Minutes" was held simultaneously at all public libraries in Malaysia. We are honored and proud of the extraordinary participation and the tremendous support from the public towards this reading habits initiative. In Sarawak alone there were a total of 137,000 readers had participated. This entry is part of the 2.5 million Malaysians who participated in this program.

In the month of June 2014, we celebrated our 10th Year Anniversary for Lincoln Corner Sarawak. Talks, workshops, movie screening and English Camps were held in conjunction with this celebration. For the past 10 years we have benefited tremendously from this collaboration through Lincoln Corner Sarawak. Kuching people not only can enjoy the information resources such as books but also including audio-visual, computer and online materials. Several prominent speakers have been specially brought from America to share their knowledge and expertise with Sarawakians. Local entrepreneurs, students and youths participants surely had benefited from information and were able to identify new opportunities after attending such programs.

As Your Knowledge Partner, we will always strive to give the best by organizing various programs and activities that are useful and interesting to the community.

“BOOKS OF LOVE”

PROJECT by PUSTAKA MIRI & MEGA HOTEL SUCCESSFULLY COLLECTED 374 BOOKS

By Sofina Tan Sofian Tan (sofina@sarawak.gov.my)

MIRI – The book donation project ‘Books of Love’ co-organized by Pustaka Miri and Mega Hotel succeeded in collecting a total of 374 books and handed over to Sekolah Tunas Bakti (P) Miri on 22nd June 2014.

The corporate social responsibility (CSR) project, which started from 20th May until 20th June 2014, was made possible with the additional assistance from kind members of the public who donated new and used books through book bins placed in the library an hotel’s lobby.

The main target was to collect 250 books to assist Sekolah Tunas Bakti (P) Miri in improving their library collection and the organizers are overwhelmingly happy that they have achieved more than expected.

The project’s objective was to give an opportunity to the community to show that they care by doing a charitable deed as in donating books. It was also an effort in encouraging healthy reading habit, especially amongst children and the younger generation.

The school’s Assistant Principal Cynthia Mathew Lugun received the donation during the closing ceremony of Pustaka Miri’s Knowledge Camp 2014 which was held for the students of the school.

She thanked both organizations for the continuous support towards the school over the years. Their library, she explained, is in much need for improvement and thanks to the book donation, they are a step closer in refurbishing it for the students. The school is also benefiting from bulk loan service provided by Pustaka Miri.

Also present during the ceremony were Pustaka Miri’s Regional Manager Hajah Salina Hj. Zawawi, Mega Hotel’s EXCO Lim Siok Leng and Communications Manager Jenny Chen.

“We hope that we are able to make a difference and contribute to the development as well as motivation amongst the students so that they are equipped with the much needed skills and knowledge in pursuing their future undertakings,” said Salina in her closing address.

Moreover, it was a part of the ongoing effort by the library to reach out to the community regardless where and who the target audience are.

The students participated in the many fun yet educational activities organized throughout the two days. They include Information Literacy Skills (ILS) session, ‘Lets Get Creative and Imaginative’, ‘Teamwork Works’, Star Gazing with Malaysian Nature Society (MNS) Miri, ‘Front and Center’ Public Speaking Session, Dining Table Etiquette and Bed Make-up Demo with Mega Hotel Miri; and ‘Ngeso Bakat’ Talent Show.
