Mini Rural Community Centre mobile programme

KUNAK: The Ministry of Rural and Regional Development (KKDW) will implement the mini Rural Community Centre (PKD) mobile programme in remote areas, especially in Sabah and Sarawak, said its Deputy Minister Datuk Rubiah Wang.

She said the mini PKD mobile will be implemented following the same concept as the PKD Mobile but on a smaller scale, and the programme locations will be further from the town or in the rural areas.

"I will ensure that the Community Economic Development Section will implement the mini PKD mobile programme in several remote areas, especially in Sabah and Sarawak.

"The PKD allocation has been increased to RM5 million for next year compared to RM4 million this year, which will enable the establishment of mobile mini PKDs because we believe there are still remote areas where rural residents
